

CPD events in 2011/2012

The Scottish Mediation Network are launching a series of CPD events, taking place across Scotland. There is a series of three different events, which will be repeated in Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen and Ayrshire.

Session 1

Embracing the Practice Standards, Mentoring Network & Engaging Reluctant Clients

Embracing the Practice Standards

Presentation on the new practice standards and to provide guidance on how to ensure that you can maintain the required level to enter the Scottish Mediation Register.

Mentoring Network

Information on what this is and how to get involved.

Engaging Reluctant Clients

Facilitated discussion covering the difficulties of engaging with reluctant clients. This will provide an opportunity to share and learn techniques and put these into practice through participating and observing role plays.

Learning outcomes

Skill: Improve your ability to engage with reluctant clients

Experience: Role play and observation. How to encourage client participation in mediation

CPD: 2 hours

Cost: FREE for SMN members, £50 for non-members

Locations

Edinburgh 30th November 2011

Glasgow 14th December 2011

Aberdeen 27th January 2012

Ayrshire 15th February 2012

Full location details on accompanying page.

Session 2

Different Approaches to Mediation & Peer Supervision Triangle Talks

This CPD event will provide an opportunity to discuss the different practice styles adopted in mediation. Mock mediations using case studies will give participants opportunity to explore these practice types and be challenged to adopt different types in mock mediations:

- Facilitative
- Transformative
- Evaluative
- Therapeutic

Triangle Talks

Triangle Talks is where three people come together, using a structure to help each other to talk about their mediation practice. The cases discussed are confidential, and should not be discussed outside the room.

The purpose of the work in Triangle Talks is to give and receive peer group support for on-going problems in your mediation practice. Attention will be given to particular and actual problems. At the same time, skills of listening can be tried out and developed for everyone involved.

Learning Outcomes

Knowledge: Better understanding of the practice types of mediation

Experience: Application of different approaches through role play of case studies

Experience: Peer supervision

CPD: 2.5 hours

Cost: £10 for SMN members, £50 for non-members

Locations

Edinburgh 21st March

Glasgow 18th April

Aberdeen 25th May

Ayrshire 20th June

Full location details on accompanying page.

Session 3

Additional Tools in Mediation Practice & Mediator Performance Checklist

This CPD event will provide an opportunity to explore the role of additional tools in mediation. It will provide a forum for discussion over the role of technology and visual aids in mediation. Participants will practice the use of additional tools through participating in and observing mock mediations.

There will be a facilitated discussion over the skills required to be a “good mediator”. Participants will be invited to create a checklist for assessing mediator performance. Checklists will be for individual use as an aid to develop and expand on good practice.

Learning Outcomes

Skills: Utilising additional tools in mediation practice

Knowledge: Increase awareness of available tools and the way in which they can be used

CPD: 2.5 hours

Cost: £10 for SMN members, £50 for non-members

Locations

Edinburgh 25th July

Glasgow 29th August

Aberdeen 21st September

Ayrshire 24th October
