Scottish Mediation Recruiting Trustees

Graham Boyack

Scottish Mediation is at an exciting stage of its development. We are delivering on our strategy for 2015-18 and its key goals

1. To ensure that the Scottish Government and organisations across Scotland regard mediation as central to their approaches.
2. Be the organisation to partner with in order to promote the development of mediation.
3. Shape and facilitate the use of mediation in new areas.
4. Strengthen the Scottish Mediation Register as the recognised mark of good practice in mediation in Scotland and adapt it to requirements.
5. Further the understanding by people and organisations of mediation.

We are proud of our work promoting mediation across the range of Scottish public life, promoting professional standards through the maintenance of the Scottish Mediation Register and through our innovative programme of continuous professional development.

We are interested in those who have a broad range of skills which may have been gained across a range of sectors. Applicants may have direct mediation skills but we are also interested in applications from experienced leaders who appreciate and have experience of the organisational benefits of mediation or who have experience in commissioning mediation to resolve disputes and/or complaints. We are keen to ensure our Board reflects the diversity of the Scottish population.

The general areas of activities that Trustees perform are:

Scrutinising and providing feedback on Board papers
 Participating in strategic discussions
 Highlighting key governance issues in practice and service development, member services, and financial and risk management.
 Providing guidance on new initiatives
 Other issues in which the trustee has special expertise

Organisational Profile:

A Day of Storytelling with Kenneth Cloke and John Sturrock

Friday 29 September
The Storytelling Centre, Royal Mile, Edinburgh

Ken Cloke, one of the leading writers and thinkers in the field of conflict, will join with Core's founder and senior mediator, John Sturrock, for a day of reflections on conflict, why it happens and how we can manage it.

They will look at all kinds of disputes and differences, from commercial to political, from family to religion, from local to international. Among these topics, John and Ken will be discussing dialogue in politics, the importance of civil public discourse, neuroscience and bias, managing difficult situations in large and small organisations and key skills to use in negotiation and mediation.

They will draw on experiences and examples from a rich catalogue. And all in the appropriate setting of the Storytelling Centre in the heart of Edinburgh's old town.

Workplace Employment Initiative Group

July 2017

Dear Scottish Mediation colleague

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday 4th October at the Anderson Strathern Office, George House, 50 George Square, Glasgow G2 1EH. Our main meeting will start at 2pm with a CPD extra session starting at 12.45pm.

Charlie Irvine, University of Strathclyde Neutrality and Activist Mediator

Charlie will cover a topic of great interest; how mediators address questions of neutrality particularly in the context of the 'activist mediator'. The session will touch on empowerment and change and the use of mediation to support those in conflict.

The optional extra CPD session at 12.45: When would you not start a mediation? And when would you halt a mediation? Including mediation (near) disasters I have known (about) – how to avoid or deal with, facilitated by Alun Thomas.

All meetings are open to Scottish Mediation members and provide an opportunity for mediators involved and/or interested in workplace mediation to come together to network and share experiences.

Please email admin@scottishmediation.org.uk if you are able to attend.

Looking forward to meeting up,

Slainte
